Snowdon at Night Challenge Terms and Conditions and Waiver

St Richards Hospice is the organiser

Event Rules / Conditions of Entry:

- The designated route as led by the walking leader must be followed and keep within the group
- No stunts or hazardous actions should be attempted.
- No alcohol or drugs to be consumed prior to or during the event
- If there is a marshal, St Richard's Hospice staff member or walking leader giving instruction, pay close attention and obey the instruction for your safety and that of others.
- If another walker is in need of assistance you will alert a walking leader or St Richard's Hospice member of staff

I understand that:

- This is a walk, not a race and that I will be walking on multi terrain paths with significant hills.
- Trekking Snowdon can be physically and mentally challenging, and includes various hilly terrains
- I understand I must be physically and mentally prepared to undertake the event and consult a doctor prior to taking part if pregnant, or have any injury, medical condition or disability.
- I need to train on hilly and off road terrain
- I need to bring a head torch and wear walking boots and I cannot do the challenge without these.
- Participation in the Snowdon at night challenge is entirely at my own risk
- Organisers and walk leaders have the right to refuse participation at any stage during the walk
- Walk routes may change due to weather conditions or be cancelled or postponed in extreme weather conditions.
- This event takes part in a natural environment, as such in some areas the ground can be uneven or slippery and insects may be present.
- The event organisers are not responsible for any personal possessions I bring or use at the event.
- St Richard's Hospice staff and walk leaders have taken all reasonable precautions to ensure my safety on the walk but accept no further liability.
- This is a fundraising event and I pledge to raise as much money as possible.
- I must look at the kit list, wear appropriate clothing and bring all appropriate snacks and equipment.

I confirm that:

- I am 18 years of age or above and have no known health problems which would prevent me from taking part in the walk. If I am 16 or 17 years old then I must be accompanied by an adult.
- I am fully aware of the risks to myself with participation in the Snowdon at Night Challenge. These risks include damage to or loss of property, personal injury and extreme cases, death.
- If you or another participant is in need of medical attention, you will alert a walk leader, St Richards Hospice staff member, marshal or volunteer.
- I will comply with all instructions given by the event organisers (St Richard's Hospice), and walk leaders and use any equipment as directed so as not to hurt or injure others.
- I am fit and healthy and do not suffer from any medical condition which would adversely affect my/our ability to safely participate in the Snowdon at Night Challenge.

Release:

- I hereby acknowledge and accept that the organiser, walk leaders and its staff shall not be liable to me for any unforeseeable loss or damage arising from my participation in the Snowdon at Night Challenge, including indirect or consequential loss or damage.
- This disclaimer does not exclude the event organiser's (St Richards Hospice) liability where an injury or death arises as a consequence of the organisers negligence or that of its staff or fraudulent misrepresentation or any other matter for which it would be illegal or unlawful for the organiser to exclude attempt to exclude its liability.

Agreement

- I have read and fully understand the terms of this disclaimer. By participating in this event I agree to being photographed or videoed and that any images captured will be the property of St Richard's Hospice and be used in press releases, promotional materials or in all manners of media including social media.
- If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of this document (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this agreement shall not be affected.
