CARING FOR LIFE

Lecture & Lunch

THE WOOD NORTON
HOTEL & RESTAURANT

Thursday, 6th July 2017

Arrival from 12.30pm, lunch served 1pm

The Wood Norton Hotel & Restaurant

A collection of lingerie belonging to the Duchess of Windsor, presented to a local family and lost for over 10 years, has recently been restored to its owners. Before the collection is moved to its new home at the Victoria & Albert Museum, we are delighted to offer you the chance to view these pieces of history and hear from senior curator Susanna Cordner, who curated the recent V&A exhibition 'Undressed: A History of Underwear'.

To book tickets, visit www.strichards.org.uk/event/royal-lingerie
or call 01905 763963
